

Jason Roeber

Personal Questions:

- Hobbies: Woodworking, hunting, and fishing:
- Dream Vacation: A hunting trip to Alaska
- Hometown: Idaho City
- Family: Wife: Courtney; Sons: Sam and Ian
- Why do you teach? To make a difference and share enthusiasm for subjects being taught
- Why are you in Idaho City? One can make a stronger impact on a smaller community, and it's a great place to raise kids
- Favorites:
 - Movie: The Godfather
 - Music: No Particular Favorite
 - TV show: How It's Made, Survivorman
 - Color: Red
 - Candy: Snickers
 - Sport: Football, Curling
 - Food: Prime Rib
 - Flower: As cheap as possible
 - Animal: Eagle
 - Mythical animal: A rich teacher
 - Joke: The joke with the punch-line: "You know, you're a real mean drunk, superman."
 - Car: Jeep CJ5
 - Superhero: Courtney, my wife.
- School memory? "My eighth grade camping trip. That's as far as we need to go on that one."
- Prefer cat or dog? Dog
- What's your zodiac sign? "I don't need someone who thinks they can tell me what kind of day I'm going to have."
- Pet peeves? Students asking what the class's daily activity is
- What's the most unusual job or place you have experienced: Working at the pet crematorium
- If you could go back in time, what period in history would it be? The old west
- Best present you have ever gotten: Sam and Ian
- Best advice received: Find a job you like, you'll never work a day in your life
- What's your advice for students? Take full advantage of the opportunities laid before you
- Who are your heroes? Dad, Wife, and Kids.
- What car do you drive? Ford F150

Professional Questions:

- Education: High School: K-8 in the Basin District, finished high school and graduated from Boise High. College: One year at Eastern Oregon State College, completed bachelors of science at Boise State.

- Job history: Seven years as a hotel manager, and a while working at the Pet Crematorium.
- Subjects you teach: P.E., Health, Outdoor Recreation, and BFS.
- Extracurricular involvement: High School Football Coach, Park and Recreation Board, ICAN mentor, Little League coach